Convoy of Hope Spreads Kindness in Cleveland and Euclid Ohio

Drive-thru distribution to provide assistance to those in need

CLEVELAND, OH – October 7, 2020 – Convoy of Hope will partner with local churches in the City of Cleveland and surrounding suburbs to spread kindness to residents on Saturday October 17, 2020 at 10AM. Providence Baptist Church of Cleveland is hosting the distribution at two locations:

- Providence Baptist Church, 12712 Kinsman Road, Cleveland, Ohio 44120
- Providence Church Life Development Center (Formerly The Manor), 24111 Rockwell Drive, Euclid, OH 44117

During the drive-thru event, Convoy of Hope and Cleveland churches will distribute free groceries and more while supplies last. Identification is not required to attend the event. Everyone is welcome. Masks are required for all volunteers, staff and Guests of Honor.

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Convoy of Hope has distributed millions of meals to hundreds of hard-hit communities across the nation as part of its “Beyond 10 Million Meals” initiative. “This is a united act of compassion, where groups and businesses are more concerned about helping people than they are receiving credit or making an extra buck,” said Hal Donaldson, Convoy of Hope president. “We’re seeing compassion in action on a large scale.”
